Congress has passed a bill which sweeps ou of the way of future congresses a mass of claims—ap "omnibus" bill for the payment of small was claims. In the measure 13% per sons are named as the beneficiaries, together with the amount that shall be paid each. The aggregate amount of the bill is $291,148, and the claims average about $214, some being as low as $10 and a few running up to $1000 These claims were for stores and supplies taken during the rebullion, mostly from featurers for the use of the union army, and they have been before congress for years. W. P. Kondy, of Benton county, who is a practical printer and a man of intelligent worth, was the person who first expased the frauds in the stute printing which were aided and abotted by the poor "measuring worm."
